

Programmer

This job is located in Bosnia

General Overview:

Primary role is to program surveys and provide project related technical assistance/support. Also, responsible for working with the project team to provide survey design ideas, troubleshoot data collection and other field issues, develop online reports, and work with suppliers.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities:

- Effectively review questionnaires in detail from project staff and program into online survey.
- Interface with project managers and programming personnel as required.
- Accurately assess the time required to program and test a survey.
- Program & debug Web questionnaires.
- Make revisions as directed.
- Work with sample providers.
- Proactively suggest questionnaire design improvements, pinpoint any flaws/inconstancies/errors.
- Incorporate images, video and other requested files into online surveys.
- Provide input to create technical efficiencies within the project requirements.
- Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

Educational / Technical

- 4 year Bachelor degree in Computer science/related field or equivalent work experience
- Knowledge of HTML coding/CSS and email marketing
- Knowledge of image editing software
- Good working knowledge of Excel and working with large datasets
- 2+ years of experience with ConfirmIt, Kinesis, or other survey programming platforms
- Knowledge of Market Research data collection methodologies (Preferred but not required)

Skills and Personal Attributes:

- Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines
- Excellent attention to detail, as this is a data-intensive / detail-oriented position
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to manage multiple tasks
- Excellent internal client service orientation
- Effective interpersonal skills Job Posting